Other Important Terms

We may transfer our rights and obligations under the Terms to another organisation, but this will not affect your rights or our obligations under the Terms.

The Terms are between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce the Terms, whether under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties Act) 1999 or otherwise.

Each of the paragraphs of these Terms and Conditions operate separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.

If we fail to insist that you perform any of your obligations under the Terms or if we do not enforce our rights against you, or if we delay in doing so, that will not mean that we have waived our rights against you and will not mean that you do not have to comply with those obligations. If we do waive a default by you, we will do so in writing, and that will not mean that we will automatically waive any later default by you.

These Terms are governed by English Law. This means the Terms and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them will be governed by English Law. You and we both agree that the courts of England will have exclusive jurisdiction.
